

MICHIGAN PREMIER OF THE FILM GLOBALIZED SOUL

Livonia - - The fourth annual ONE PEACE event celebrating the United Nations International Day of Peace, will feature the Michigan Premier of the film “Globalized Soul” at the Livonia Civic Center Library on Wednesday, September 21st from 6 - 9 p.m.

Filmed in Australia, India, Israel, Morocco, Mexico, Turkey and the US, “Globalized Soul” explores the oneness at the center of the colorful diversity of the world's religions.

Onscreen commentators include The Dalai Lama, Rabbi Michael Lerner, Roshi Joan Halifax, Rev. James Trapp, Sister Joan Chittister, humanitarian Asha Mehta, and Sheikh Abdul Aziz Bukhari, co-founder of The Jerusalem Peacemakers. Music is provided by Enya, Philip Glass, Ravi Shankar and Harold Moses.

The film begins at the Parliament of World Religions in Australia where the Dalai Lama encourages participants to return home and become active in the work of universal love and compassion in their own countries.

Filmmakers Kell Kerns and Cynthia Lukas follow two participants, Sheikh Bukhari and Asha Mehta, back to their respective homelands in Jerusalem and India to highlight their nonviolent activism.

The results are inspiring and encourage the viewer to leave with hope for humanity’s future.

The evening will be hosted by ONE PEACE, a local non-profit group dedicated to bringing people together to help spread peace throughout the world.

Open to the public. $5.00 donation appreciated. Come early and browse the tables.
